

Neil McClenaghan:

Neil is an engineer, and surveyor, with 35 years in property development and contracting, 5 years as Development Director at a large London local authority, 10 years in Property Consultant, the setting up and running KMC Developments Ltd for 10 years - a highly successful residential property developer, 10 years with LRS. Neil is responsible for procurement and delivering the home improvement works programme including responsibility for the works procurement and contracting.